$10,000 LAND SUIT STARTED IN SUPERIOR COURT TODAY

BAY COUNTIES LAND COMPANY ALLEGE THAT THE DREDGER "LOS AROBLES," BELONGING TO THE ELLIS LANDING & DOCK COMPANY PUMPED 27,875 YDS. OF SILT FROM THEIR CANAL PROPERTY.

A suit was filed before Superior Judge Latimer at Martinez today by the Bay Counties Land company in which action was brought by them against the Ellis Landing & Dock company for the recovery of $10,000 which they allege is due them for silt, land and earth pumped from their property by the Ellis Landing & Dock company's dredger "Los Arobles."

The Bay Counties Land attorneys allege that the pumping of the land from their clients' property has been going on for several months and that 27,875 yards of earth have been replaced onto the tidelands of the Ellis Landing property.

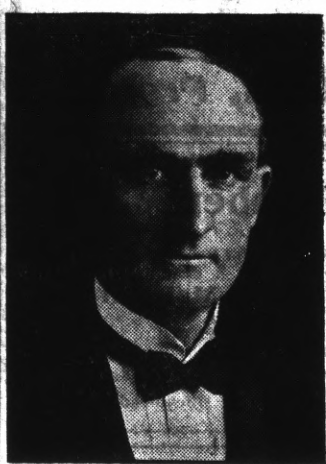

When the matter of an inner harbor was first talked of it is alleged that the Ellis Landing & Dock company placed their dredger "Los Arobles" off of their canal property with instructions to pump silt and earth upon the overflow lands.

It is further alleged by the Bay County Land company that the dredger captain did not stop at taking silt and mud from the bay bottom but went in close to the shore and before stopped had pumped a vast quantity of material away.

SOUTH TALKS OF CURTIN AND JOHNSTON

DEMOCRATS OF SOUTHERN PART OF STATE PREDICT OVERWHELMING VICTORY FOR JOHN CURTIN.

Managers of John B. Curtin's campaign for Governor on the Democratic ticket are busily preparing for his big rally in Los Angeles on next Saturday, September 26, night. It is predicted that this meeting, the principal engagement of Curtin's eight-day Southern tour, will be one of the biggest ever given a political candidate in the south, because Curtin has aroused intense interest by his speeches pointing out the extravagances and unfounded claims to reform of the Progressives. Jo V. Snyder, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, will speak at the same meeting.

W. A. Sullivan of San Francisco, one of the Senator's managers, who has been in Los Angeles since the first of this week, has this to say after looking the southern field over:

"The break has already come here for Curtin. The talk now is Curtin and Johnson as the strongest rivals. People are saying it is not a question whether Curtin can answer Johnson, but whether Johnson can answer Curtin."

George E. Renwick of this city left yesterday for Montreal, Canada, where he will remain for the ensuing six months, after which he will return here. Renwick is half brother to Charles F. Renwick, local electrician.

SERIOUS CRIME LAID AT DOOR OF JOHNSON

KENNETH JOHNSON CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING A NINE-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF NEIGHBOR—BAIL SET AT $5,000.

Kenneth Johnson, charged with feloniously assaulting nine-year-old Ruby Fox, daughter of Mrs. Della Fox, was arraigned this afternoon before Police Judge Lindsey. He pleaded not guilty and his bonds were fixed at $5,000. District Attorney A. B. McKenzie represented Mrs. Fox, with Attorney F. R. Taylor for the defense of Johnson.

The arrest of Johnson occurred several days ago, after a conference between Mrs. Fox, the district attorney, Chief of Police Walker and a physician. The result of the physical examination of the child was not divulged, but the findings were evidently sufficient to warrant the arrest of Johnson. Johnson is a laborer, and has lived in this city for several years.

The authorities are undecided whether to send Grinfelter to a reformatory or deport him as he informed them upon his capture that he ran away from the liner Cosmos upon her docking at San Francisco two weeks ago, having shipped from his home in Bremen, Germany.

RICHMOND APPROPRIATION FIRST

The dispatches Tuesday indicated that the rivers and harbors bill had met up with a most decided snag in the senate, and so it had, but it will not effect the Richmond appropriation, so don't get scared. The bill as passed by the House had about $10,000,000 or $12,000,000 "pork" in it, and it was this that the senate got after, and not legitimate items of expenditure. The bill now goes back to the House from the senate, and into a conference committee, which will proceed to eliminate a lot of the "pork" and bring out the bill again remedied and pruned down to where it ought to be, and when this is done you will find that the Sacramento river and Richmond harbor appropriations will be allowed to remain, for these two items have long been agreed upon by both House and Senate and the Conference Committee.

Since the time of the oldest inhabitant there has always been "pork" in the rivers and harbors bill. This has been deemed almost a necessity to protect the congressmen and senators in their jobs, and the people themselves are to blame for it. As soon as a congressman gets home he is told by his constituency that while he did very well in national matters he forgot his own locality, and if he can't get something through for his local people he had better stay home and let somebody go to congress who can. This is the hot-shot that every member gets from the home people, and so they long ago got together and tacitly agreed that certain small appropriations should be made for the purpose of pacifying home folks. The natural consequence was that a lot of things were ordered and appropriations made for them that were unnecessary, and in the aggregate this made up an expense of many millions for the government to meet. This was called the "pork barrel," and every administration has followed that precedent since the memory of man runneth not back thereto. Now the Wilson administration goes on record as being against the "pork barrel," and that is what has been causing the trouble with the rivers and harbors bill. The "pork" is going to be cut out and the legitimate appropriations be left in.

When the government board of engineers was here a couple of months ago this writer sailed around this bay with them and was with them at luncheon at Winehaven and all day long, and we went over this very question with every one of the board, at length and in detail. Captain Black, chairman of the board, told us that about the best that Senator Burton could hope to muster in opposition to the bill would be fifteen senators, and that is just exactly what was done, according to the dispatch of this week. That is not enough to kill the bill by any means, but it is enough to send it back into conference and cause some of the "pork" to be cut out, which is entirely proper and right. The Sacramento and Richmond projects are not under this head, and the bitterest opponents of the bill as it was presented from the House have no objections whatever to these two items. The Board of Engineers reported favorably upon these items after they were here and inspected both personally, and it may be taken for granted that that settled it as far as these two items are concerned. Both will be included in the amended bill. The $428,000 for the Richmond inner harbor will go through all right, the only difference being that but $50,000 will be immediately available, as with the like amount of our own money, making $100,000, it is deemed that sum will be all we can spend to good purposes between now and next April, when we will be handed $50,000 more.

Before Uncle Sam gets through with this matter he will have expended at Richmonds a whole lot more than a million dollars, and while this is going to take some years and more or less labor, it will come. So look happy and don't worry.

When you get unduly excited over the war, just get a quart of buttermilk and a whole home-made pumpkin pie, and get outside of both. An overwrought nervous system always yields under that sort of treatment.

THOSE ATROCITIES

In this country we are all familiar with the wild stories of political campaigns. They come out of the air where no one knows. They are whispered about on the eve of an election until all the town, or countryside, or nation knows it, and in frequent telling it gathers the air of circumstances, the embroidery of imagination and the venom of partisanship. It is a thing which is accepted before election as truth but in a week or two after election is believed by nobody.

The stories of atrocities in Europe, which each side to the controversy is so anxious to put into circulation in America, are, most of them, of the same flimsy construction as the word-of-mouth scandals set going in a heated political campaign over here. They are mostly fiction. They are rumors amplified. They are the words of refugees helping to explain how scared the refugees are. They are, some of them manufactured at military headquarters for the purpose of discrediting the enemy and stirring up the fighting spirit in their own troops.

In every war there are atrocities. War is not a checker game in the shade of the blacksmith's elm. Cruelties and outrages have to be expected, and no army in the field has ever been altogether guiltless of them. But the tales of barbarism and gorilla-like ferocity which English, French, Germans, Austrians and Russians are shouting so hard into American ears may, ninety-nine percent of them, be set down as untrue. After the war is over such yarns will have no place in the records.

Eight hours a day don't seem to be cutting much figure over in Europe just now.

And now the Sanjak of Novibazar, whoever in blazes he is, has also declared war.

We don't just understand why a street car should make more noise than a freight train, but nearly all of them do. Seems like every car we ever get into needs the service of a piano tuner.

The nations are warring across the wide sea, the Irish are in it as glad as can be; the Germans are busy and hollering "Hoch," while the Russians are trying to knock off their block. P. S.—Guess this is about enough.

Chicago food speculators are being sent to jail. And the same fate is in store for a lot of them over in San Francisco. The food speculators of that town are a den of thieves that merit penitentiary stripes.

The dispatches state that France achieved a turning movement, but it was not likely the other cheek that was turned, though doubtless it should have been, for so we are commanded to do when smitten.

When a preacher goes to conference some of the members of his congregation hope he will come back, others are willing to leave it all to the Lord. Seems like we leave an awful lot of work for the Lord to do that we ought to do ourselves.

An exchange sites the fact that we all talk too much, and might get a lesson along that line from the Indian, who never talks much. The Indian don't talk enough. It will be remembered that the white man talked the Indian out of about everything he had, giving him a string of beads for six or eight counties and a bottle of firewater for what land remained.

October 4 has been set aside by presidential proclamation as a day for all Americans to pray for peace. That, however, won't do the fellows any good that are getting killed in the meantime. We don't see any particular sense in waiting for some set day to pray. Pray every day, and every night, and whenever you have time and happen to think of it, and then some. Prayers never hurt anybody yet, and to our notion the Lord can hear just as well on weekdays as he can on Sunday, or on October 4th, either.

CLEARING HOUSE PROVIDED FOR TRAVELERS

A clearing house for travelers in San Francisco and other nearby cities during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is the organization being perfected by the Travelers' Aid Society of California. It is the aim of the society to have trained workers meet every train and boat and give care, advice, assistance and—where welcome—protection to travelers, especially unescorted women and girls. To an information bureau, it will add a social service organization, if successful in its present plans. The California society is modeled after that of New York which has assisted thousands of women and children annually, preventing not only inconvenience but in many cases something worse. Moral protection will be one of the features of the 1915 exposition.
Orin C. Baker is perfecting details of the organization, soliciting assistance for the work which will make it possible for unescorted women and children to visit the fair in safety.
The Southern Pacific company, because of the heavy travel expected next year, will emphasize instructions to its special police, trainmen, stationmen, matrons and other employees to lend every effort for the protection of travelers, especially women and children. In its safety campaign, it aims to aid in the moral as well as the physical protection of its patrons, so far as it is possible for a railroad to do so.

SLEEPING CARS IN WHICH ONE CAN SLUMBER

The Railroad Commission has issued a general order effective October 1st, providing that the railroads shall hereafter issue clean bills of lading to shippers of carload freight and discontinue the practice of noting on such bills of lading "Shipper's load and count."
The text of the order is as follows:
"It is hereby ordered that all railroads issue to shippers of carload freight from agency stations a clean bill of lading at the request of the shipper and in such cases to discontinue the practice of noting on bill of lading 'shipper's load and count.'
"It is further ordered that upon request of shippers of carload freight from a non-agency station the railroad will send a man to check the loading and issue a clean bill of lading, the expense, except transportation of man to and from point of loading to perform service of checking, to be borne by the shipper."

HOW I CURED MY CATARRH

Told In a Simple Way

WITHOUT APPARATUS, INHALERS, SALVES, LOTIONS, HARMFUL DRUGS, SMOKE OR ELECTRICITY.

Heals Day and Night

It is a new way. It is something absolutely different. No lotions, sprays or sickly smelling salves or creams. No atomizer, or any apparatus of any kind. Nothing to smoke or inhale. No steaming or rubbing or injections. No electricity or vibration or massage. No powder; no plasters; no keeping in the house. Nothing of that kind at all. Something new and different, something delightful and healthful, something instantly successful. You do not have to wait, and linger and pay out a lot of money. You can stop it over night—and I will gladly tell you how FREE. I am not a doctor and this is not a so-called doctor's prescription—but I am cured and my friends are cured, and you can be cured. Your suffering will stop at once like magic.

I AM FREE—YOU CAN BE FREE

My catarrh was filthy and loathsome. It made me ill. It dulled my mind. It undermined my health and was weakening my will. The hacking, coughing, spitting made me obnoxious to all, and my foul breath and disgusting habits made even my loved ones avoid me secretly. My delight in life was dulled and my faculties impaired. I knew that in time it would bring me to an untimely grave, because every moment of the day and night it was slowly yet surely sapping my vitality.

But I found a cure, and I am ready to tell you about it FREE. Write me promptly.

RISK JUST ONE CENT

Send no money. Just your name and address on a postal card. Say: "Dear Sam Katz: Please tell me how I can cure my catarrh and how I can cure mine." That's all you need to say. I will understand and I will write to you with complete information, FREE, at once. Do not delay. Send postal card or write me a letter today. Don't think of turning this page until you have asked for this wonderful treatment that can do for that it has done for me.

SUPERB PALACE OF HORTICULTURE
PRACTICALLY COMPLETED; MARVELOUS
EXAMPLE OF SARACENIC ARCHITECTURE

This photograph shows the beautiful Palace of Horticulture, the last of the exhibit palaces to be finished at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. All told thirteen huge structures will be completed by the exposition, in addition to the magnificent Millions of friends and well wishers of the great Panama-Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco next year have wondered what effect the European war will have on the Exposition. While most people know that the war will not cause its postponement, the action of the participating nations since war was declared is not so widely known. Of the thirty nine nations that accepted invitations to participate in the Exposition, only four are involved in the present struggle.

Even if every nation involved in the war should withdraw, the Exposition would still surpass all precedent. But none of the nations concerned have sent notice of withdrawal at the time this article is written.

Within three weeks after the war was announced, the Netherlands increased its fund for the Exposition from $100,000 to $400,000 and requested that construction be rushed upon the great Netherlands pavilion near the Palace of Fine Arts; France cabled that there had been no change in her plans; the first emissaries of English manufacturers who will take part in a collective display reached San Francisco the last week in August (some of the most costly and elaborate displays ever shown will be presented from England); the Argentine, in view of new trade alignments between the American continents, increased its appropriation from $1,300,000 to $1,700,000; Japan, which made a splendid exhibit at St. Louis during the Russo-Japanese war, sent word through its acting consul general in San Francisco, Mr. Yasutaro Numan, that Japan's display will be the finest that the Empire has ever made and that it will be completed in every detail upon the opening of the Exposition. Japan asked for increased exhibit space.

Since the war broke out the stimulus on exhibits has been extraordinary. Manufacturers in the United States, Central and South America, the Orient and Canada have become impressed with the tremendous opportunity for bringing their goods to the attention of the world's markets. Up to this year more than five hundred million dollars have been spent annually by American tourists in Europe, but in 1915, under the stimulus of cheap rates, millions of Americans will "See America First."

The most striking feature of the Palace is its great glass dome. The architects of the building turned mosque of St. Sophia, the mother of most of the architectural marvels of the Levant. The details and ornaments of the many smaller domes and trellis work give an eighteenth century Renaissance effect, the minor garden architecture being of the period of Louis XIV of France. The glass dome of the Palace of Horticulture is said by engineers to be the largest hemispherical dome in the world, being 185.5 feet in height and 152 feet in diameter. An idea of the magnitude of this dome may be had when it is compared with some of the most famous domes now in existence. The diameter of the Pantheon of Rome is 142 feet; that of the Duomo of Santa Maria del Fiore at Florence, 139 feet; the United States Capitol, Washington, D. C., 135½ feet; while the famous dome of St. Peter's at Rome is 139 feet in diameter. The other dimensions of the Palace of Horticulture are equally imposing, the building covering 223,000 square feet of ground as against 62,000 feet covered by the Mosque of St. Sophia. The building was erected at a cost of $341,000.

The lesser domes of the palace are of mottled glass; by day, under the brilliant sun of California, their vaulted surfaces reflect a gorgeous blend of colors and at night, during

The lesser domes of the palace are of mottled glass; by day, under the brilliant sun of California, their vaulted surfaces reflect a gorgeous blend of colors and at night, during the exposition, the huge main dome and the minor domes will gleam in all the colors of the rainbow while huge batteries of colored searchlights play upon the glass from within.

Directly beneath the great dome is an immense octagon of nearly half an acre, which will be transformed into a semi-tropical garden, the feature of the exhibit being a number of Cuban royal palms, sixty to seventy feet in height. These will be surrounded by Creole palms, also brought from Cuba, whose height ranges from forty to fifty feet. The space between the two octagons of palms will be planted with tropical foliage, fruits and flowers, while the interior of the palace will be decorated with hundreds of climbing vines covering its walls and great interior columns. Many rare song birds and birds of plumage will add to the wonders of this vast conservatory.

Flanking the palms are two large interior pools, filled with rare aquatic plants. The lotus, tropical water lilies, the elephantine Victoria regina and flowering grasses, growing pineapples, banana trees bearing fruit and orchids from South America almost worth their weight in gold will add to the unusual display. Rare hot house plants will be shown from France, England, Ireland and Holland. The Holland exhibit of tulips will be particularly beautiful.

The commercial side of the horticultural industry will also be shown in the palace, which is 600 feet in length and 300 feet wide. There will be an up-to-date fruit cannery, can-making plants, a seed packing establishment, an alive packing and raisin seedling and packing plant, box making exhibit, all unning full blast to show the visitor how orchard products are handled from picking to the consumer. Practical orchard work will also be exemplified. In this building also will be shown the thousand dollar Panama-Pacific Rose, a prize of $1,000 having been offered for the most perfect variety of rose originated for display at the exposition.

NEWARK GAME CALLED OFF--ST. MARY'S WILL PLAY HERE ON SUNDAY

The proverbial meeting of Greek and Greek will not be a circumstance in comparison with the meeting which will take place Sunday morning on the First street lot. It will not be a meeting between the team from Newark and the Elks of this city, as announced but the team from St. Mary's College of Oakland, one of the liveliest squads registered under the name of baseball on the west side of the bay, has bid for the date and the management of the Elks has decided to take them on for the occasion.

It was announced yesterday that because of the illness of Mrs. Snow, wife of the manager, now of the Newark team, it would not be possible for that aggregation to appear for their lesson in the game by the Elks. President Luce was notified to this effect and a hasty conference of the directors resulted in a call to the St. Mary's team for the occasion. Another interesting announcement was made yesterday when it was given out that Charley Burns, star pitcher for the Elks had decided to step out of the game for a period of several months. Burns, with Bill Gordon, has kept up the good name of the Richmond Elks since the inception of the team. He has brought about victory after defeat was almost inevitable. He has not only saved his people by his strong arm, but has been a reliable man at every station of the game, and his batting average was far above par.

Burns is to be supplanted on the mound to vie with Gordon for the honors by Pop Arlett, former twirler for the Seals of San Francisco. Arlett, whose record is known through his affiliations with the coast league will make his Richmond debut on Sunday of this week in the Richmond-St. Mary's game. The change will be hailed with pleasure by the local fans.

With regard to the game, the indications are that it will excel as a drawing card any game ever played on the local commons. The St. Mary's team is one of the fastest in the bay cities, and has taken into its camp some of the best lower league teams in the game. It supports two pitchers, Brandon and Collins, who have respective records that would put Mathewson in the swaddling clothes class. These marvels are supported by regular ball players, the lineup being as follows:

Brandon and Colline, pitchers; Moy, catcher; Cumba, first; Rooney, second; Rubart, short; Maher, third; Prentice, left; Wilson, center, and aroni, right field.

That Harvey Christian, former star pitcher for the Modesto team of the state league may come to join the ranks of the locals is being jostled about the throng. Christian is contemplating a position with the Standard Oil company, and it may be possible that he will be given a local berth. He is related to Tyler Christian of the coast league, and baseball has been in the blood of the Christians since time immemorial.

With the following of several hundred which will spill the enthusiasm for the St. Mary's lads, and the usual throng of Richmond fans, the

Speeder Is Held Under $50 Bail

Of the quintet of speeders arrested late last evening for speeding an automobile on Macdonald avenue, four were released by Police Judge Lindsey this afternoon, and the driver of the car, Ed Ehret, was held under cash bail of $50. When arraigned, Ehret with his companions, pleaded not guilty.

Arrested with Ehret were the following: Lawrence Taylor, Otto Enze, Jacob Williams and Pete Whealey. All five are members of prominent Berkeley families.

Joost Gives Car Rest; Gets Pinched

SLEEPING CARS WHERE SLEEP IS ASSURED

Sleeping cars on which sleep will not be a misnomer, and on which railroad patrons can enjoy their full quota of restful slumbers is one of the ideals of Vice President W. R. Scott of the Southern Pacific company. He has just issued, through the division superintendent, an appeal to all employees of the company, especially train and yard crews, asking them to increase their efforts to eliminate all unnecessary nocturnal noises and asking, furthermore, for suggestions for improvement of the service in this regard.

The railroad companies for years have been striving to do away with the clanging of bells, tooting of whistles, hissing and sputtering of locomotives and shouting of trainmen close to sleeping cars. The Southern Pacific company long ago instituted its campaign and a great many of the noises and inconveniences that used to be associated with sleepers have already been eliminated. But Vice President Scott wants to make the service even better if possible. He wants to prove that REAL sleeping cars are within the realm of possibility everywhere on the Pacific System. Hence, his appeal to the men to keep up their work and to co-operate for improvement, where possible.

LOCAL WOMAN IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL; ARREST MAY FOLLOW

Suffering from what may be the effects of an injury received several months ago Mrs. Matilda Bartolini of Point Richmond is in a grave condition at the Roosevelt hospital in Berkeley. An operation may be a necessary means to save the woman's life.

Several months ago Antonio Francisco, an Italian car cleaner was arrested on a charge preferred by Mrs. Bartolini. He was then alleged to have struck the woman over the head with a stick during an altercation in one of the coaches. Francisco stated at the trial that the woman was injured when she fell in trying to strike him. Owing to lack of corroborative evidence the charge was dismissed. Yesterday Mrs. Bartolini was seized with convulsions and blind staggers, and was rushed to the hospital.

THIRD SECTION OF HIGHWAY TO BE STARTED SOON

BIDS FOR CONSTRUCTION WILL BE CALLED SECOND WEEK IN OCTOBER.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—At the meeting of the state highway commission it was decided that during the second week in October bids will be invited for the construction of the third section in the Contra Costa highway between the northern Alameda county line and Martinez. The construction of the first link between San Pablo and Pinole is now under way.

The contract was awarded yesterday to Bates, Borland and Ayer of Oakland for the building of the second section between Martinez and Eckley, a distance of seven miles, and to cost $42,097.

The third section will be a continuation of the route from Eckley westerly.

It is probable that with the settlement of the difficulties that exist at Richmond on account of the Key Route tracks which Supervisor McBryde is endeavoring to adjust, that the entire highway will be given over to the contract during next month.

Mrs. B. F. Smith, of 321 East Richmond avenue, is ill this week at her home. The nature of the illness is slight and the attending physician holds that the recovery will be speedy and complete.

"FRED'S WEARING A NEW FALL SUIT ALREADY — BOUGHT IT AT CHERRY'S, ON CREDIT, HE TELLS ME."

I asked him if he had it charged, and he laughed at me. "I don't mean that kind of credit," he said: "I mean a better kind—the sort that lets you PAY A LITTLE DOWN AND THE BALANCE AS YOU CAN MOST CONVENIENTLY."

I didn't know there was such a place in town, so I asked Fred more about it. The name of the place is CHERRY'S; Fred says they have a big assortment of the snappiest new fall suits for men that he has seen anywhere, and at lower prices, into the bargain.

Fred buys all his clothes there—I always supposed he went to the high-priced custom tailors, because he always looks so well dressed.

Now I know the reason—he can afford to have two or three suits at the same time, simply because he pays for them a little at a time, and doesn't miss the money as he would if he had to "plunk up" $25 or more every time he bought a suit.

I have come to the conclusion that if Fred can be well-dressed on his salary, I can on mine, and hereafter I'm going to be a CHERRY patron, and BUY MY CLOTHES ON CREDIT, TOO.

Yes, he told me exactly how to find CHERRY'S. The exclusive store for men is at 528 13th street, between Washington and Clay and the ladies' store is just across at 515. They have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market—the other at 2400 Mission street. Adv.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made by Many Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Richmond resident tells you how.

"I was troubled with pains in my hips and loins," says Mrs. James Wright, of 1119 Roosevelt Ave., Richmond. "I was almost laid up. I got up in the morning feeling so tired, lame and worn out that it was all I could do to start my housework. My kidneys were weak and if I caught cold, it always made me feel worse. I tried everything I heard of, but didn't seem able to get relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. After I had used four boxes, all the ailments had gone and my health was fine. CONTRA COSTA
COUNTY NEWS

All over Contra Costa county is noticeable ample signs of abundant prosperity, and not a single town or community or section in the county but what is forging ahead and doing well in a material and worldly way. (and let us hope, also, spiritual) way. The crops have been unusually good and the prices realized by the producers all they could wish for, taking it one side and down the other. The towns are all growing and building up as never before in their history, and the county is now one of the richest as well as the best in the state. Concord has forged ahead in building and improvements something wonderful: Walnut Creek, its neighbor, is incorporating and spreading out like a pleasant smile. Crockett, Bay Point and Pittsburg are more than busy with manufacturing and are really great big factory ports, while Antioch is booming big both industrially and in an agricultural way. Byron and the Brentwood country are building great irrigating ditches and bringing under cultivation thousands of acres of fine land heretofore dry. The great industrial enterprises all up the San Pablo bay and on beyond are doing much to put Contra Costa county on the map and it is surprising what an immense business some of these great enterprises do. A number of them have recently placed exhibits of their products in the Contra Costa Exhibit over in San Francisco, maintained by this writer, and they are eye-openers. The latest to come in is the California Redwood Lumber Company of Pittsburg, with a large framed picture of their immense yards, showing a million dollars worth of lumber; they also handed in a model of their famous redwood water tank, which is very interesting. The Smith Lumber Company at Bay Point is also putting in a display. Bay Point is getting factories, railroads and growing like a prairie fire.

The following new items we glean from the local papers of the county:

PINOLE

(From the Times)

William Lewis, manager of the Boys' Band, is one of the most enterprising young men in Pinole and seems to have something up his sleeve at any and all times for the benefit of the town. His latest move toward improving the town should be met with encouragement by our citizens. It is Mr. Lewis' intention to clean up the town plaza, plant shrubbery where it is needed and build a band stand in the center of the lot.

According to reports, James P. Arnold, former chief of police of Richmond, and recent candidate for sheriff, is trying to corner the grape market of the state. It is understood that his chances to accomplish this end are more than fair. He is at present a strong factor in the grape market of the San Joaquin valley, buying and selling the fruit.

It has been decided by the trustees of Pinole-Hercules school to hold the regular meeting of the school trustees at the Pinole-Hercules school on the second Friday of each month, at the hour of 9:00 A. M., at the school building. This will give the trustees a chance to investigate any matters that require a visit to the school.

CROCKETT

(From the Signal)

Professors Burke, Mitchell, Swan, Murphy and Pierce of the Stanford University are in Beneta this week making a preliminary survey to an investigation of conditions arising from the operation of the Selby smelter, against which institution Solano county has been waging a stiff fight for several years. The professors are working under instructions from the California Smelter Waste Commission, composed of the State Veterinarian, the Secretary of the State Board of Health, and the Secretary of the State Horticultural Commission.

On Friday, November 13th, the annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will be held. Both the day and the date probably sound ominous to some but to those dear ladies of the church organization, superstition has no hold. Right merrily are they planning for that bazaar which year after year the people patiently wait for. This year a bigger and more enjoyable time will be had.

Through the non-billing of this place, due to a misunderstanding, Francis J. Heney, Progressive nominee for United States Senator, failed to find an audience when he arrived here last Wednesday afternoon. As a consequence there was no speaking on the part of Mr. Heney. He and his party, after greeting a few of the business men and citizens, left for Martinez, where Mr. Heney spoke.

MARTINEZ

(From the Standard and Gazette)

This year as in past years high honors have come to the Contra Costa breeders of fine sheep and cattle who were among the exhibitors at the state fair in Sacramento. In the Shropshire Sheep class, the Bishop Brothers of San Ramon carried off all honors having the champion ram and the champion ewe. Dr. J. W. Henderson, owner of Bella Vista farm in Martinez won the Junior Champion Bull in the Guernsey class with Waganen Vista.

Three thousand dollars is the sum which is allowed by the jury to Mrs. Dorothea Peterson in her suit against A. D. Simpson for $10,000 which she alleges she is entitled to in payment for the injuries which she sustained when she fell into a pit which had been dug by Simpson the owner of the property which she and her husband were occupying near Oakley.

W. R. Meese of San Ramon driving The Empress, his fast little mare won first place in the third race at the state fair Friday afternoon. The Empress did the mile in 2:18 3-4.

Exercising its right under an option taken five years ago on 31 acres of tule land directly north of the present property, the General Chemical company has purchased this tract from the Morton Company and the land owned by the chemical company near Nichols now consists of over 60 acres, just double the former holdings.

State Controller Chambers sent a communication to the Supervisors Monday informing the board that Contra Costa's share of the interest due on the state highway bonds is $507.66 and asked that this sum be allowed at once.

Not only the British Isles, but the northern countries of Europe, Sweden and Norway are drawing directly on California barley and other foodstuff crops this year to fill their granaries, according to reports received from London by Balfour-Guthrie & Co., McNear and other shippers. The 65,000 tons of barley shipped and ready for shipment out of Port Costa this month will not go, as usual mainly for manufacturing of malt and the making of beer. Advances are that the barley imported is being diverted from the beer trade to be used as food for horses and cattle and even for the people.

Contra Costa's exposition commissioner is rattling the dry bones of those in authority at the exposition who are trying to put a cinch on about everything that will produce side money for the favored few. Unless Birmingham can build the Contra Costa booth at figures as are submitted by C. A. Peppin, the architect for the Redwood Manufacturing company of Pittsburg, in this county, there is a probability of a squall ahead in which other counties beside the one planned down by Mt. Diablo will take a hand in raising.

ANNUAL MEETING OF RICHMOND INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION OCT. 5TH

Richmond Cal., Sept. 22, 1914. Editor Record-Herald:

Under our by-laws our annual meeting must be held the first Monday in October.

The meeting has, therefore, been called for Monday, October 5th, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the offices of Alvarado & Griffin, Berry Building, Richmond.

As the Industrial Commission work is being prosecuted on business lines to get the best results obtainable it is desired that there be a full attendance of members at this annual meeting. We are giving you plenty of time so that you may set aside that evening for the meeting.

The profitable results from the work of the Industrial Commission are too apparent to need comment. It is to our advantage to continue them and to make ever stronger efforts, if possible, during this Fall and Winter and the year 1915.

It may be well to repeat the reminder made in a former letter, calling the last meeting of the Board of Governors, that visitors to the Exposition will begin arriving from this time on. Before the first of the year there will most probably be large numbers of strangers from all sections of the country about the bay region. We must keep Richmond at the front. Especially we must strive to get in touch with the manufacturers and others who may be behind the important enterprises. Through the Panama Canal opening and the Exposition, there is much for us to do.

Richmond will have a special exhibit in the county space at the Exposition. This will be paid for out of the County fund. Our committee is now busy with John Bermingham, Jr., Contra Costa Commission to the Exposition, arranging for Richmond's representation.

The Naval Base, Naval Fuel Oil Base, the railroad from Marin county and other development features are assuming a favorable aspect and all will need attention. The Inner Harbor we must keep after all the time until it is successfully completed.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the meeting on October 5th. You will receive another reminder of the meeting.

Very truly yours,
RICHMOND INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION.

Geo. S. Wall, President.
H. W. Wernse, Secretary.

city. It is estimated that more than $4,000 was paid to the section hands yesterday. Last night a number of the men made life hideous for residents in the upper part of town, and today with a "holdover," started out to take in the town.

PITTSBURG

(From the Post)

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Contra Costa County Bank, Wednesday morning, C. J. Wood, president of the Redwood Manufacturers Company, was elected to fill the unexpired term of C. A. Hooper, deceased, as member of that body. Mr. Wood is well known in financial circles of San Francisco and other bay cities, and his connection with local banking interests is an encouraging sign in behalf of the promotion of community affairs.

Definite plans have been laid to hold a two-day celebration in commemoration of the achievements of Christopher Columbus, and October 11th and 12th have been designated as the days on which the festival will be held. A fund of six hundred dollars has been raised to finance the event and the program committee is getting up a list of attractions that will bar no reasonable expense. The City will be prepared to entertain great throngs of visitors and it is expected that thousands will be drawn from this and adjoining counties to partake of the hospitality of Pittsburg and indulge in a season of recreation and sport.

ANTIOCH

(From the Ledger)

E. R. Rapp says he is ashamed of the stains on his hands, but they are legitimate and came from hulling English walnuts. He secured 148 pounds from one tree and regrets he does not own a couple of dozen, so he could retire and live without work.

Town Attorney Greene was instructed to draw up an ordinance prohibiting boys under 21 years of age frequenting saloons and also not to permit boys under 21 years of age to visit pool rooms. These will be ready to be passed at the next regular meeting. The question of wholesale liquor dealers paying a wholesale license was also brought up and Attorney Greene was instructed to draw up the proper ordinance, requiring not only wholesale liquor dealers, but druggists as well to pay a wholesale license. Regarding what law governed a wholesale liquor dealer, Attorney Greene stated that any one who sold liquor in quantities larger than a quart.

BYRON

(From the Times)

The great story in last week's Times announcing that the Byron-Bethany irrigation project was a sure go and advertising for proposals to construct the main canal, created a sensation throughout this and surrounding sections. It was the first real gun in the big battle that is to be waged for irrigation throughout the entire West Side. Bids for the excavating and grading of three miles of the main canal of the Byron-Bethany project will be opened next Monday. It is expected actual work will commence by October 1st. The low cost per acre of the undertaking has occasioned considerable comment, but inasmuch as three capable engineers have agreed upon practically the same figures, the majority are willing to accept them. The cost includes the main lateral and laterals to the high places. Four lifts will be necessary to reach the 145-foot level. The water will be taken from Italian Slough, which insures great quantities for all irrigation interests.

G. O. P. FIGHT TO OUST MOOSE OPENS

DEFEATED NOMINEES FOR PLACES ON STATE TICKETS
GO TO SUPREME COURT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Conspiracy to defraud the voters and destroy the Republican party is charged in an application filed today in the state supreme court for an alternative writ of mandamus directing Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state for California, to cancel the certificates of nomination on the Republican ticket, issued to U. S. Webb the Progressive candidate for attorney general and John H. Eshleman, Progressive candidate for lieutenant governor.

Those Who Petition.

The petitioners are William H. H. Hart, former attorney general, and a candidate for re-election, and Mrs. Helen K. Williams, Republican candidate, for lieutenant governor. Similar petitions will be filed tomorrow with the supreme court in behalf of the other ousted Republican candidates against the successful Progressives: Namely, W. S. Kingsbury for secretary of state; John S. Chambers for state controller and Friend W. Richardson for state treasurer.

In each case the contention of the petitioners is that the state administration is composed of officials who, though registered as Progressives, have entered into a conspiracy to defeat and destroy the Republican party by causing members of their own party to be nominated as Republicans, at the primary elections.

Primary Law Attacked.

By reason of there being no statement on the primary ballot that the Progressive candidates who appeared thereon were not Republicans, but registered Progressives, it is alleged that the Republican voters of the state were misled.

The purpose of the state primary law, it will be argued in briefs which are to be submitted later, was to recognize the existence of parties, and insofar as its provisions nullify this intent and tend to destroy parties they are unconstitutional.

FARMERS WILL ASK FOR FEDERAL AID

LOS ANGELES, September 24.—With representatives from more than two-thirds of the states in the union, the eleventh annual meeting of the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of America came to a close in this city today, after a three days session. The keynote of the convention was the action of the body in voting to ask direct aid from the government in the present crisis which confronts the American farmer as a result of the titanic struggle across the water. A plan was formulated whereby the Federal government will be asked to tide the farmers over the emergency, and a committee was appointed to go to Washington to consult with Federal authorities relative to the situation.

A high tribute was paid to the work of Peter Radford by National President, C. S. Barrett, in his opening address to the convention, who declared that it was the Radford type of men which keep one's faith sound, his courage high and renews his faith in humanity. He stated that Mr. Radford had been of invaluable assistance to him in his work and that his wise counsel and suggestions had materially assisted him in the solution of problems confronting the national work.

The National Union has strong and active organizations in twenty-seven States of the Union and is composed of a membership numbering eight million. The officers of the Union were unanimously re-elected for the coming year as follows: President, C. S. Barrett, Georgia; vice president, A. V. Swift, Oregon; secretary-treasurer, A. C. Davis, Arkansas.
